

Diane Painter

Round Hill, VA

As a former teacher who used technology in the classroom and now work with teachers in rural areas, I know the importance of high-speed Internet services to schools and homes (especially for those completing distance ed courses)

E-Rate funding needs to increased, please.